Go Small Biz and Capital Payments Announce Partnership to Help Small Businesses Grow

June 15, 2011 – Melville, NY - Capital Payments (www.capitalpayments.com), a leading electronic payment solutions provider, announced today that the company has entered into a partnership with GoSmallBiz (www.gosmallbiz.com), a knowledge resource for small businesses, to offer access to working capital solutions as well as sharing content and information related to running and growing a small business. GoSmallBiz.com empowers small businesses with the information or accessibility to make smarter purchasing/business decisions and has selected Capital Payments to be the Advisor to their community in the electronic payments space.

Through this partnership, the GoSmallBiz.com business community will have the ability to provide more payment options to their customers, while also enabling them with a distinct advantage of a payments provider that can customize the offering to their specific type of business economically.

“This new bundling of services and technology is a powerful tool for attracting new customers and opening doors to stronger sales. We recognized the importance of business owners having a trusted partner in the payment processing arena,” states Fran Tarkenton, Chief Executive Officer of GoSmallBiz.com. “We’re excited to make the solutions Capital Payments provides readily accessible to our small business community.”

“The focus that GoSmallBiz.com has put on this business critical service will empower members of their business community whether small or mid-sized, to gain more customers,” states John M. Perry, Chief Executive Officer of Capital Payments. “Providing customers with flexible payment options and the ability to bring their presence to the web will help businesses gain market share and level the playing field with their larger competitors.”
